

C. Lynden.

THE BOUNDS OF HEADLEY.

PERAMBULATION IN 1895.

HOLLYWATER TO FRENHAM POND.

12. Starting at the point where "Eade's Chimney" was;

13. Thence E. through a big stump to the stream at the bottom of the field, where the more Northern of the two water-courses runs in.

14. Thence in the same straight line to the S. corner of a fuel shed belonging to Mr. Huntingford; cutting off a very small piece of Mr. Greenway's plot.

15. Thence, still in a straight line, across the road to the corner of the hedge on the N. side of the road.

16. Thence in the same straight line along the bottom of a ditch to another road.

17. Thence in the same line, and 25 feet from the ditch, to where the bank again projects.

18. Thence up the common, 3 feet from the bank, right up to the Farnham and Liphook road, and across the road with the drain.

19. Thence up the S. side of the hedges to Westlands.

20. Thence in the same direction down the watercourse on the W. side of Westlands.

21. Thence in the same direction, 20 paces, to the head of the old course, thence down the course to the hedge, taking in one paise, and down the centre of the course to the river.

22. Thence across the river nearly in the direction of an oak tree, and across the meadow between the streams to where the rails were.

23. Thence E. (after crossing the stream) up to Mr. Warren's road; by a course, and then 12 paces.

24. Thence across the road, and up the S. side of the hedge of several fields (one meadow and four fields) to the pond opposite Mr. Tilbury's.

25. Thence, without going into the pond, up the W. side of the road to the corner of the hedge opposite the limekiln; (noting on the green the cross showing where James Luke Hack was killed.)

26. Thence across to the E. side of the road, and up the E. (and afterwards S.) side of the road to Golden Cross, (sometimes called Reden's Corner) by a gate leading into what was Little Common.

27. Thence through the gate up by the S. hedge of what was Little Common, this S. hedge being out of the parish, (crossing a new hedge after a while, so as always to keep to the S. side of Little Common,) to Hurland's Cross on the road leading to Bramshott; Hurland's Cross being about 25½ rod S. of where the above "new hedge" strikes this road.

28. Thence across the road to the end of the stone wall opposite, and N. up that wall, and (through the gate) round by the N. hedge of Gentel's coppice, (keeping to the N. of the hedge), to a stone at the head of Fuller's Bottom road.

29. Thence, crossing the road at right angles, to a point about 5 chains up the bank, noting an old mound and cross 2½ chains up. [The small pieces outside the bank here and in Nos. 31 & 32 are supposed to have been left so as to give access to the common. The boundary in 29, 31 and 32 is taken from the Inclosure Map.]

30. Thence, up the E. side of the bank, nearly to the top of the hill to within about 5 chains of a tree on the bank where the bank bends

31. Thence, leaving the bank, to a cross 1 chain to the S.W. of the tree in a line with that part of the bank which is to the N.E. of the tree.

32. Thence, in about the same direction, to a cross which is 12 paces to the right of the tree.

33. Thence, in about the same direction, up a sort of little hollow, 100 paces to a cross.

34—35. Thence in a straight line, some 300 paces, to a cross and stone at the beginning of a ditch and bank.

36. Thence up the bank to a cross which is just beyond where a road crosses the bank.

37. Thence, up the bank to the bend, 20 paces from the road, where the road into the manor should be.

38. Thence, up the bank some $2\frac{1}{2}$ chains, to a cross a little beyond the existing wrong road into the manor.

39. Thence, still up the bank, some 400 paces or thereabout, to a cross W. by S. of Grayshott Hall.

40. Thence, just across the road into the manor, to a cross some 2 rod from Grayshott Hall bank; (now levelled.)

41—42. Thence (for the most part up a little hollow, some 2 rod from the old bank) about 105 paces, to a cross; and on to the end of a deeper hollow which is a chain from the Hall bank and is near where the bank bends to the E.; thence in a straight line about 9 rod to a point a chain from the bank (cross not found in 1895); and thence in a straight line to the S.W. point of the acre inclosure near Mr. Woodthorpe's house.

43. Thence, round by the curved bank, to the road.

44. Thence, down the W. side of the road to Wagner's Pond head.

45. Thence, by the stream, to the ram, and afterwards where the stream runs i.e. up the lowest land.

46. Thence through the penstocks.

47. Thence in the ditch on the N. side of the road, below Mr. Vertue's property, up to the further end of 1282 on the Ordnance map.

48. Thence up the middle of the road to the hedge on the East of Miss P'Anson's field.

49. Thence to a point in the S. hedge of the road 20 paces up.

50. Thence up the new fence passing through the W. gate post, to a point in the W. hedge of Morrey's land.

51. Thence to the E. hedge passing about 1 rod from the front of the house.

52. Thence again up the centre of the road.

53. Thence diagonally through the middle of the small field belonging to Mr. Mowatt, striking it at the new fence;

54. And out into the road about 2 chains up, and up the S. hedge of the road to Wagner's Wells Bottom head, at the corner of the hedge by the apple tree.

55. Thence nearly N. across the mouths of the two roads to a cross at the bend of the bank not far from the pathway.

56. Thence in a straight line (the whole of the Boundary Road being in Headley Parish) to the Grayshott and Hindhead Road.

57. Thence, crossing this road, in the same straight line to a bank which meets the N. side of the road.
 58. Thence, down the W. of this bank and 3 feet from its top, to the head of Whitmore Bottom, a distance of some $7\frac{3}{4}$ chains.
 59. Thence down the S. of the Bank; taking the S. hedge where there are two parallel hedges.
 60. Thence down the centre of the bottom.
 61. Thence through the pond and over the hedge and down to the end of the centre hedge.
 62. Thence, up the low land, to where the pond is on the other side of the further edge.
 63. Thence, over the hedge and through the pond, and down the lowest land of the meadow to a point in the S. bank a chain from the W. bank.
 64. Thence through the S. hedge cutting off a small piece of Mr. Leuchars' meadow.
 65. Thence over the hedge and along the S. side of the hedge.
 66. Thence across the hedge of the next field where the stream crosses it, and down the centre of the bottom to meet the stream.
 67. Thence, along the stream to the fish bar above Barford Upper Mill Pond; thence along the centre of the meadow into the pond.
 68. Thence through the centre of this Pond to a cross at the head.
 69. Thence, through the cottage under the chimney, and by the front of the other cottages to again meet the stream; (about one bedroom of the cottage being in Headley Parish).
 70. Thence, by the stream, to the lowest pond.
 71. Thence, through the pond and by the E. side of all the buildings, and therefore by the W. side of the road, to again meet the stream.
 72. Thence, by the stream, to Frensham Pond; but following the Ordnance Map at Simmondstones.
